Events and Announcements

Our thanks to Jessie Snow and Grace Morash for baking cookies for the mothers today.

Our thanks to Rev. Manuel and Lisa Snow for leading us in praise today.

WMS: Please remember to save your used stamps for the Leprosy Mission. Also, any families who have spare yarn you wish to donate -- we have a knitter who makes mittens for the needy. See any member of the WMS if you wish to donate.

Make You Think TV – Youth Event on Tuesday, May 12th at Birch Cove Baptist Church from 7:00-9:00 PM. Shauna Simmonds, creator of Make You Think TV- a powerful character media resource, is coming to Halifax for a one night only presentation as part of the national Think Tour. Touring with a live band, original music from the films is performed live and Shauna leads an interactive youth panel to draw out the issues they face. This TV-style event focuses on two specific topics and includes a challenge for students to embrace these and other positive values in their lives. This event is open to everyone and has been paid for by local churches, making it free for youth to attend.

Meet the Pastor – A Special Welcome for Rev. Shant Manuel: We will hold a special Meet the Pastor Potluck on Sunday, June 7th following the service. The Sunday School will also provide ice cream sundaes for dessert! Please invite your family and friends to attend our service and to help us give our new pastor a warm welcome.

Plant & Garden Sale: Bedford Baptist Church's Floral Committee is organizing a Plant Sale for May 30th. 9am - 12 noon. A variety of hardy perennial stock will be available at reasonable prices. Also a garden accessories table with tools, bird feeders, garden accents or garden books will be available. Bring a friend and enjoy a morning augmenting your garden.

Happy Mother's Day to all of the Moms in our congregation & God bless!
